RAILROAD EMPLOYES.

STRIKING ENGINEERS, FIREMEN AND SWITCHMEN

Gathering at St. Joseph to Consider the Burlington Strike—Chicago Railroad Men Organizing for Political Action. Other Labor News Notes.

CHICAGO, July 24.—The grievance committee of the Brotherhood of Engineers will meet again to-day to hear further reports from the balloting of the Burlington strikers. It is expected the canvass will be completed by the middle of the week. Quite a large number of the strikers left Sunday night to attend the meeting of engineers and firemen and switchmen to be held at St. Joseph, Mo.

The meeting is expected to be the largest assembly of working railroad men ever known in this country. All the great railroad lines of the states and Canada will be represented. The meeting was called to consider the Burlington strike. It is believed from statements made by various Brotherhood men that the St. Joseph meeting may develop into the preliminary steps toward a general boycott being ordered against the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy road on August 1, the date on which the heavy grain crops of the states penetrated by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy system will be ready for transfer to market.

About five hundred men, representing the engineers, firemen, brakemen and switchmen of the roads running into Chicago, held a meeting Sunday, the object of which was to take political action on questions of interest to the order. It was asserted that those in the meeting represented about thirty thousand voters through the state, and that therefore they would hold the balance of power as far as the legislature was concerned. A club was formed, which will have for its battle cry the repeal of the Merritt conspiracy law and a stricter enforcement of the private detective law against the Pinkertons.

Unwilling to Call It Off.

MCCOOK, Neb., July 24.—Hoge and Murphy were here Sunday and canvassed the subject of calling the strike off. Without a single dissenting voice the striking engineers and firemen voted to continue the struggle. Hoge and Murphy went to Denver Sunday night. It is understood that the sentiment has been practically unanimous along the route for a continuance of the strike. Several Brotherhood men at this place went to St. Joseph Sunday to attend a large meeting at that point.

Seeking Employment Elsewhere.

QUINCY, Ill., July 24.—Some of the striking Chicago, Burlington and Quincy engineers and firemen are seeking employment in other vocations. The Famous Manufacturing company, manufacturers of hay presses, put on a night force of about thirty men Sunday night, composed almost entirely of striking engineers.

Union Labor Convention.

LENEX, Iowa, July 24.—The Union Labor convention of the Eighth congressional district met here Saturday and endorsed Maj. R. A. Anderson's candidacy for congress by a unanimous vote.

WASHINGTON.

Report of the Civil Service Commissioners—Mr. Randall's Illness Fatal.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—President Cleveland transmitted to congress the fourth report of the civil service commission, covering the period from January 16, 1886, to July 1, 1887. In it he states that 15,852 persons were examined for admission to the classified service of the government, of whom 10,746 passed and 5,106 failed. Of those who passed, 2,977 were applicants for admission to the departments at Washington, 2,547 were examined for customs service, and 5,224 for the postal service.

During the same period 547 appointments were made from the eligible list to the departmental service, 640 to the customs service and 3,254 to the postal service.

The report concludes as follows: "With a continuation of the intelligent fidelity which has hitherto characterized the work of the commission, with a continuation and increase of the favor and liberality which has lately been evinced by congress in the proper equipment of the commission for its work, with a firm but conservative and reasonable support of the reform by all its friends, and with the disappearance of opposition which must inevitably follow its better understanding, the execution of the civil service law cannot fail to ultimately answer the hopes in which it had its origin."

Hustling at the Navy Yard.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—At the Washington navy yard ordnance officials report very gratifying progress on the guns for the new vessels of war. There are now thirty-five six-inch breechloading rifles under way, and some of these are well advanced toward completion. Fourteen are complete in all their parts, and will probably reach the proving ground within a few weeks. The two six-inch guns for the Chicago are practically finished.

Congressmen Leaving Washington.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Trains out of Washington last night and to-day carried away a good many congressmen and if the exodus continues to-morrow there will not be a quorum left in the house. Now that the tariff bill is out of the way, members of the house are disposed to linger in Washington, and it will not be surprising to find that body without a quorum at any time.

Says Randall's Illness is Fatal.

NEW YORK, July 24.—The World's special from Washington says that Mr. Randall is suffering from cancer of the stomach, and will probably not return to the house, as the disease is far advanced and incurable.

Dead With Neither Money Nor Friends.

CINCINNATI, July 24.—Adam Shabel, a German seventy-two years of age, only in this country a few months, died at 11 o'clock Saturday night, of exhaustion at Sebastian Burr's, No. 67 Molitor street. Shabel, having neither money nor friends, Burr last night notified the police, and the remains were removed to the morgue to be interred by the city.

SPORTING NEWS.

Lon Myers Home From Australia—John L.'s Circus—Other Notes.

NEW YORK, July 24.—A marvel of fleetness on foot stood on the Manhattan Athletic club house steps Sunday afternoon. Few passers-by failed to recognize the ex-amateur champion, Lon Myers, who has just returned from a two-years' trip to Australia. Myers did not make a fortune while away, and is anxious to get on with any runner in the world for any amount of money, race from 200 yards to one mile. It is hinted that an effort will be made to make foot-racing in this country what it is in England and Australia.

The only thing in the way is the law against gambling. "Australia," Myers said, "is one of the best countries under the sun, and I had a royal time. My last race there was on May 30 in the Botanic, Sydney, quarter mile handicap. I won it in 48 2-5 seconds, after running through a field of seventeen men, to each of whom I was conceding from two to twenty yards start. I'd like to bet I can do a straight away quarter in 46 1-2 seconds."

Myers says he received an impromptu benefit just before he came away and netted him $1,000. Harry Fredericks remained over another steamer to take in one more handicap.

O'Connor Challenges Teemer.

TORONTO, Ont., July 24.—Jake Gaudaur has refused to row William O'Connor, of this city, on the ground that O'Connor has not sufficient reputation. O'Connor replies by issuing a challenge to John Teemer to row for the championship of America for $1,000 a side, and as a guarantee of good faith has put up $100, the race to be three miles, with a turn, on any fair course, the challenge to be open for two weeks, and the race to be rowed four weeks from the expiration of that time.

Sullivan and His Circus.

BOSTON, July 24.—The announcement was made on Saturday night that hereafter John L. Sullivan would run the Doris-Sullivan circus himself, and it will hereafter be known as the Sullivan circus and combination. Sullivan believes he can make it pay, and after settling some of his pugilistic rivals, proposes to renounce the prize ring for the circus ring.

Sporting Notes.

Eddie Knouff, the pitcher released by St. Louis, has been signed by Cleveland.

John L. Sullivan is reorganizing his circus and will start from Boston with a much better show.

The great left-hand pitcher, Ramsey, of the Louisville, has been offered to Cincinnati for a consideration.

The races at Detroit, Mich., will begin Tuesday. The meeting lasts five days and there are $35,000 offered in prizes.

Winners at Monmouth Park races Saturday were Fitz Roy, Reporter, Firenze, Belvidere, Niagara, Speedwell and Will Davis.

SUNDAY'S BASE BALL.—Cincinnati 10, Kansas City 1; Athletics 4, Brooklyn 3; Louisville 3, St. Louis 5; Cleveland 6, Baltimore 2.

Capt. Comiskey, of the St. Louis Browns, says the crowds at St. Louis are all against the home team, and yell with delight when they are beaten.

A game of ball between Cleveland and Baltimore was played at Geauga lake, about ten miles from Cleveland, Sunday, and 5,000 people attended.

Phil McHugh and George Lynch have signed articles for a fight to a finish for $100 a side, to take place within two weeks. Both are Cincinnati sluggers.

Chicago Talking Elevated.

CHICAGO, July 24.—There is no longer any doubt of the fact that Chicago is to have an elevated railroad and the construction of the one to be very soon commenced on the South Side is looked upon simply as the inauguration of the system of elevated railroad passenger traffic which will shortly of necessity be extended throughout the entire city. On the street cars constructed to carry twenty people, so far as their seating capacity was estimated when they were built and put into the street car service, no less than 150 people have been crowded and compressed on every trip for years.

Murder on a Lake Schooner.

CHICAGO, July 24.—A desperate affray occurred on board the schooner Rodie Amelie early Sunday evening, in which a sailor named Edward Kennedy, of Kingston, Ont., was fatally stabbed. As the schooner was about to clear, two of the sailors, named Edward Kennedy and John Mangen, got into an altercation over the performance of some work on the deck. Before any of the ship's officers could interfere Mangen drew a cutlass and plunged the long blade into his victim's body half a dozen times. Kennedy was taken to the hospital and Mangen locked up.

Not Anna Redmond.

CHICAGO, July 24.—A dispatch has been received by the police from Officer Hoffman saying that the child held at St. Joseph, Mo., was not Annie Redmond the kidnapped girl. Hoffman went to St. Joseph with Mr. Redmond, the missing child's father, to identify the child brought there by Jeff Smith, the engineer. Mr. Redmond and Officer Hoffman arrived in St. Joseph yesterday and the officer immediately notified the department of the untruth of the story.

Duel Over a Melon.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 24.—Charles Ferrell and Walter Roberts, two leading young white men, fought a duel Saturday night at Blackwater, Hancock county, over a melon. Ferrell was instantly shot to death and Roberts painfully injured. The jury of inquest released Roberts from blame, considering the killing a matter of honor on his part.

Dangerously Cut With a Trowel.

TYPTON, Ind., July 24.—Harry Justus, a brickmason, struck John Tarpy, a grocery clerk, in the neck with a trowel Sunday morning, cutting several small arteries and making a very dangerous wound. Justus is in jail. The assault was unprovoked, and the feeling against Justus is bitter. Tarpy's recovery is doubtful.

Did Not See It.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 24.—No observations of the eclipse could be obtained by the Yale college astronomers.

PATRIARCHS MILITANT.

THE QUEEN CITY TO BE FILLED WITH THEM THIS WEEK.

The Week to Be One of Social Enjoyment.

Thursday to Be Odd Fellows' Day at the Centennial—Program of the Week—Over $11,000 to Be Given in Prizes.

CINCINNATI, July 24.—Cincinnati is the greatest city in the world this week. She can boast of one of the most wonderful exhibitions ever held, of the most gorgeous spectacles ever produced, and of the assembling within her gates of the military council of one of the strongest wealthiest secret organizations in the world—the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. The organization of the Patriarchs Militant is young but powerful in wealth and numbers.

Three years ago in the first parade, when the organization was but six months old, 10,000 uniformed men were in line, forming a parade eight miles in length. Considering the wonderful advances made in the past three years, one can hardly estimate the probable grandeur of the present occasion. Gen. Underwood and his assistants have been untiring in their efforts to make the gathering a success, and have been ably seconded by the city in its efforts to receive the guests with great eclat.

The mayor has kindly tendered the free use of the streets for the parade, and the chief of police has detailed mounted squadrons, two companies of police and four patrol wagons to report to Gen. Underwood. The board of public affairs has given the free use of the parks of the city. The chamber of commerce and the campus of the Order of Cincinnati have been voted to the use of the chivalry, with free admission for six hundred to the latter place, and cash donations amounting to $800. Music hall has been tendered for drills and the conferring of the decoration of chivalry. The Latonia Jockey club has proffered the free use of its course, amphitheater, etc.

Receptions will be given at the art museum and zoological garden. The hotels have furnished parlors for headquarters uses, and the railroads have reduced the rates. The week will be entirely one of social enjoyment, and ere it closes Cincinnati will be fairly wild with pleasure. Thursday, the 26th, has been selected as Odd Fellows' day at the centennial.

The week's program, as revised by the general committee, is as follows:

Tuesday, July 24.—Morning, competitive drills of battalions and cantons; afternoon 6 p. m. dress parade of competing organizations; evening, conferring grand decoration of chivalry.

Wednesday.—Continuation of drills of cantons and battalion; afternoon, competitive contests between individual chivalry; 6 p. m., dress parade on esplanade; evening, conferring decoration of chivalry.

Thursday morning—Continuation of competitive drills. 3 to 4 p. m.—Formation of lines: Patriarchs Militant troops, encampments, lodges, grand lodge of Ohio, veteran Odd Fellows. 4 p. m.—Inspection of Patriarchs Militant troops. 4:30 p. m.—Formation of column for parade. 5 p. m.—Column moves along short line of march. 6:30 p. m.—Pass in review on esplanade and dismissed. Evening—Conferring decorations of chivalry.

Friday morning—Continuation of competitive drills. Afternoon—Band tournament, &c., river excursion; 5 p. m., assembling of troops at Eden park; 5:30 p. m., reception at Art museum; 6:30 p. m., dismissal at head of Mt. Adams incline. Evening—General reception of militants, encampments, lodges and Odd Fellows generally at zoological garden by the fraternity in Cincinnati. Gates open at 4 p. m.; promenade concert at 8 p. m.; fireworks at 9:30 p. m.

Saturday.—Formation of Patriarchs Militant lines; reading of awards by board of judges of the inter-department drill and delivery of prizes; river excursion and enjoyment at libitum.

Prizes aggregating $11,655 will be given in competitive drills.

ANOTHER VICTIM

Of the Wheeling Flood Found—Railroads Getting in Shape.

WHEELING, W. Va., July 24.—The seventh victim of the flood of last Thursday night was found Sunday on the river bank below town. It was the body of Tommie Hawley, aged five years, one of the four children of that family found. Eight bodies are still unrecovered, and several persons missing.

The Baltimore & Ohio road has completed a temporary bridge over the creek in place of the one destroyed. The Pittsburg, Cincinnati & St. Louis railway company run its first train out to-day. The bridge over Whiskey run on the Ohio side is also being rebuilt.

The Baltimore & Ohio has a large force of hands on the Pittsburg division, but preliminary surveys will have to be made, as in the case of a new road, before much progress can be made. Experienced observers say it is the worst wreck ever seen.

Indignant Ashlanders.

ASHLAND, O., July 24.—Over one thousand people assembled at the skating rink Saturday night to express their indignation at the unrighteous decision in the Mason murder case. Resolutions were unanimously adopted in which they denounced the corrupt jury, the officers of the law whose duty it is to see that the law of the land is vindicated, and that justice triumphs over the disorderly elements. They severely reprimanded the Rev. D. B. Dunchan for taking such an active part in the defense and in using his sacred office to defend men whose hands are deeply dyed with the blood of Editor W. H. Reynolds.

The Sick General.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., July 24.—Gen. Sheridan is feeling strong and bright. He continues to take solid food and the character of his nourishment is being changed to that approaching the diet of a healthy man. He passed Sunday on his couch by the window, and was desirous of meeting a friend whom he saw paddling through the water outside. His request, however, was denied on account of the weather.

GOOD INDICATIONS

For a Brilliant Week at the Centennial Exposition.

CINCINNATI, July 24.—The close of the present week will be indicative of the financial success of the exposition. Outside interest taken in Cincinnati's great attraction will be determined. Present conditions promise a prosperous week.

Special excursions have been arranged from many different points in the country, and it is possible that Cincinnati will be over-run with strangers.

The international gathering of Odd Fellows will largely swell the multitude. Thursday has been set aside as Odd Fellows' day. On that day a special floral display will be given, for which $1,000 in prizes has been offered.

The government exhibit, which has been put in proper shape with surprising rapidity, alone affords half a day's study and entertainment.

"Rhodopis," the beautiful spectacular pantomime, will be produced on Music hall stage every night this week.

In the absence of Urbee's band, which has been engaged for the "Fall of Babylon," the famous Big Six band, of Springfield, will furnish the music in Park hall.

Saturday night Mrs. Crawford, of North Vernon, Ind., an exposition visitor, gave birth to a healthy boy in one of the ante-rooms near the entrance to Music hall. Several commissioners have suggested that the boy be christened James Allison Crawford, in honor of the officer of the day.

He was indifferent about his fate, and when the time came for the drop he called out, "All ready." He broke jail twice, during the twenty months he was confined there, the last time on Sunday, two weeks ago. Owing to his long confinement he was too weak to travel and was captured in about three hours. Alex. TUESDAY EVEN'G, JULY 24, 1888.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President,
GROVER CLEVELAND,
of New York.

For Vice President,
ALLAN G. THURMAN,
of Ohio.

AUGUST ELECTION, 1888.
For Sheriff,
JOHN W. ALEXANDER.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the Democrats of the Ninth Congressional District: I beg leave to submit to you my name in connection with the Democratic nomination for Congress from this district. I have no claims to urge over those of any other true Democrat, and make my announcement with some degree of timidity. I hope to make the primary contest in such a manner as not to create dissension or division in the ranks of the party, and, whether I lose or win the nomination, I propose to remain the same unflinching Democrat I have always been. Respectfully,
G. R. KELLAR.
Carlisle, Ky., July 17, 1888.

A Republican Scheme.

The Republicans are endeavoring to work a nice little scheme in their desperate efforts to defeat John W. Alexander for Sheriff. They know their case is hopeless unless they can succeed in catching some votes from the Democratic party, and they have been diligently at work for days past in trying to work a scheme to that end.

This scheme in a nutshell is nothing more or less than the promising of the Deputyships under Mr. Forman—if he should be elected—to a couple of popular young Democrats, Mr. Forman and his henchmen have been searching the county high and low the past week with this end in view, and it will probably never be known how many Democrats have been approached on the subject and promised a position if they would forsake their party and use their influence to defeat Mr. Alexander. Any true Democrat would regard such a proposition as that, coming from a Republican, as infamous and an insult, and would treat it with scorn and contempt. A Democrat who would listen favorably to such a proposition from a Republican has little regard for party principles and party success.

Such is the scheme Mr. Forman has been trying to work. No later than last Saturday he approached Mr. Thomas Malloy, a worthy young man and popular Democrat of the Germantown precinct, and promised him a position as Deputy. But Mr. Malloy is not that kind of a Democrat, and very soon let Mr. Forman know that he could not be caught by such promises. His Democracy was not for sale, and he was not long in informing the Republican candidate to that fact. He let Mr. Forman know that he (Malloy) was going to vote and work for the Democratic nominee. Mr. Malloy treated the proposition as it deserved.

Other Democrats have been approached, but so far as known they have scorned to lend themselves to the Republican scheme.

It leaked out last evening that Mr. Forman has named Mr. John T. Short, a blacksmith of this city for one of his Deputies. Mr. Short has always been a Republican and it looks like the attempt to tack a couple of Democrats on to the ticket with Mr. Forman has failed to pan out.

A Young Men's Irish Democratic Club has been organized at Lexington, and is composed of the very best hustlers in that city, says the Transcript.

A SPECIAL from Flemingsburg says: "An immense county Cleveland club was organized Saturday afternoon. The Democrats never had such perfect organization here as they now have, and all efforts are directed to increasing the Democratic majority."

The Republicans sneered at the Mills Tariff bill when it was introduced and hooted at the idea of its ever passing the House. But it has passed all the same, the majority for it being thirteen, more than was anticipated. The fact that three of the four Independents in the House voted for the measure shows that that class of people favor tariff reform.

THE Covington Commonwealth has the following in reference to local politics: "Green Kellar evidently intends making a winning fight for the Congressional nomination in the Ninth district. He had carefully studied the situation before announcing himself a candidate, and evidently knows his ground. Mr. Kellar could make the fight for the redemption of the Ninth better and with greater certainty of success than any one else named for the place."

MORE AND MORE.

A Growing List of Republicans for Cleveland, Thurman and Tariff Reform.

Too Much High Protection and Free
Whisky in Their Party's Platform.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., July 14.—Rev. R. V. Hunter, the well-known pastor of the Seventh Presbyterian Church, was questioned concerning the political outlook.

"I am not a politician," said he, "but of course I have my opinion about such things. Personally I like General Harrison and would like to see him elected President; but I dislike the Republican platform as heartily as I like General Harrison. The Democratic party has never made any pretensions on the liquor question, while the Republican party has always posed as the friend of temperance and morality. I admire the devil when he is straight more than I do a hypocrite. The Republican platform is illogical and cowardly and by it the party goes back on all its promises. General Harrison I believe to be a good man, but the party deserves to be defeated on account of its miserable botch of a platform. I am confident that it will drive thousands of christian voters from the Republican party, as I know of a great many right here that think as I do about it."

"What is your opinion of President Cleveland?"

"He has made a much better President than any thought he would. No one can honestly criticize his administration, and upon the tariff question I don't know but he is about right. Of course this cry of protection to industry will serve as a sort of catch for the Republicans, but I think there is precious little in it."

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM DID IT.

Another distinguished New York mug-wump announces his purpose to stick to Cleveland. This is Mr. Matthew Hale, of Albany. The Republican platform did it.—Exchange.

LOUISVILLE, KY., July 14.—The hot fight which is being made on the tariff question has caused a number of prominent citizens to change party sides.

Colonel John H. Ward, a prominent Republican who has been identified with the party ever since its organization, has announced that he will vote for Cleveland. He says: "I have temporarily abandoned the Republican party because it has forsaken its principles of being the party of individual liberty and progression. I shall support the Democratic ticket this time, because Mr. Cleveland has brought his party into line for tariff reform, and on this policy the party is to succeed, sooner or later. If not now, it will when the matter is discussed and properly presented to the people. The Republican party is wrong in opposing tariff reform, and until it sets itself right I left it."

Colonel Ward was a prominent Union soldier during the war, and was formerly a Whig. Mr. L. G. Wells, treasurer of the Turner, Day & Woolworth Manufacturing Company, thinks the Republican party has outlived its usefulness, and, favoring a revision of the tariff, will vote for Cleveland, as will also, Mr. W. H. Rolph, another prominent Republican.

ANOTHER FLOPPER THAT DIDN'T FLOP. William Weihe, of Pittsburg, who has been announced as a convert to Harrison, has written a letter to a friend in this city, in which he denies the statement and adds that his friends need have no fear that he will join the Republican party. Mr. Weihe is president of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel-workers.—Harrisburg (Pa.) Patriot.

HURRAH FOR CLEVELAND.

"Hurrah for Cleveland!" This ejaculation, coming from the lips of Colonel H. F. Fellows, President of the Springfield Wagon Company, the largest manufactory of the kind west of the Mississippi, was directed toward the surprised ears of the New York Herald correspondent at Springfield, Mo., a few days ago. Colonel Fellows was one of five Republicans of Green County, who dared to vote for Lincoln in 1860, and was a few years ago elected Mayor on the Republican ticket.

"Are you going to vote for Cleveland?" asked the reporter.

"Yes, sir; as between the two tickets I have no hesitancy. As a manufacturer, I endorse the Cleveland idea of tariff reform, looking not to my own interests alone, but to my employees and the laboring men in general. If a reduction of the tariff would paralyze the industries of the country, as claimed, why don't the Republicans allow the Democrats to carry out free trade measures, and thus kill their party? The fact is the Republicans are afraid the reduction of the tariff would enhance the prosperity of the country and reduce to the glory of the Democratic party. I say, Hurrah for Cleveland and Thurman!"

Fashions For the Fair.

N. Y. Evening Post.

Pale olive, fawn and mushroom tints are at present in high favor. They are refined, cool-looking, and adapted to almost any occasion. A stylish dress is made of mushroom-colored silk-warp, Henrietta cloth. The dress called a directoire was cut in redingote fashion, with superb bands of gold and silver passementerie running down each side of the front, covering the large directoire collar and forming the entire vest over which the garment opened. The skirt was of pale, mushroom-colored watered silk.

Whisky in the Arts.

[Chicago News.]

"I will take," said the tramp to the bartender, "a little free whisky to be used in the arts." "What's that?" growled the drink-dispenser. "Ah," said the tramp, loftily, "you are probably a Democrat and haven't the platform which we Republicans recently adopted. We there demand free whisky for the arts, and I will take a little just now to be used in painting my nose."

How Auditor Chenoweth Got Rid of a Borrower.

I heard a story this week of Judge Chenoweth, First Auditor of the Treasury, and Colonel Dick Wintersmith, delegate-at-large to Washington for life. It may be a whiskered tale, but I will tell it as new and fresh. One day the Colonel went into the First Auditor's office and found the judge very much dejected indeed.

"Hello, Chenoweth," he said, "what's wrong? You look like you had been to a funeral."

"I haven't," said Chenoweth; "but I'm in bad luck, I have just heard that a note I held on a man for $300 had gone to protest and I'll have to make other arrangements to meet several obligations, and I haven't any money to do it with and don't know where to get it."

The judge continued to deplore his sad fate and the Colonel sympathized and soothed for some time and finally went away.

Next day he came again.

"By thunder, Chenoweth," he said as soon as he came in, "what a mind reader you are."

"Mind reader? What do you mean?" inquired the judge in innocent amazement.

"Why, about that $300 note yesterday. I came in here at that time to borrow $50."

Whether it really was a case of mind reading or not nobody knows, and nobody is finding out any more than Colonel Dick isn't getting the $50.—Washington City Exchange.

Stock, Field and Farm.

The wheat crop throughout the State is the finest ever harvested.

There never were better prospects for a fine corn crop in all this section.

Mr. J. D. Cushman, of Dover, recently sold 15 steers that averaged 1,660 pounds, to Arch McGregor, of Ripley.

The farmers of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri pay interest on farm mortgages of $95,000,000 per annum.

In Chicago one year ago hogs were quoted at $4.85 to $5.25, against $5.40 to $5.75 now. Sheep of the better class are 50c per 100 lbs. more than at this time last year, and cattle are bringing better prices also.

The Flemingsburg Times-Democrat says: "Corn, tobacco and all sorts of growing crops are looking better than usual at this season, and should the favorable weather continue this country will be in fine fix this fall."

Mr. J. H. Bonta, this county, threshed by machine measure, last week, 636 bushels of wheat off of thirteen acres of land, being a fraction over forty-eight bushels per acre. On forty-seven acres he raised 1,651 bushels, an average of 34½ bushels per acre.—Danville Advocate.

The Philadelphia Press remarks: "The crops promise better and better. Winter wheat is still only a two-thirds crop, but there has been no year in six when spring wheat, corn, oats, potatoes, hay and fruit looked likely to give so big a yield. A dollar will put more into the family market basket next fall than at any time for five years."

Pensions.

The old soldiers can not find any just cause for complaint against the present administration. In the matter of pensions they have been treated handsomely by the Democrats—if we mistake not, better than they ever have been treated by any administration.

A comparison has been made of the number of applications for pensions during the fiscal year ending July 1, 1885, four months after President Cleveland's inauguration, with the number during the fiscal year ending July 1, 1888, and it shows that there were 107,530 more applications handled the past year than in 1885. This has been done, too, with a much less number of employees, because the average force in the pension office in '85 was 66½; in 1888 only 49½.

Religious News.

The Baptists are going to build a $120,000 college at Mayfield, Ky.

Elder J. S. Hardin has accepted a call from the Christian Church at Falmouth.

The Presbytery of Ebenezer, South, met in Paris a few days ago, and after a full discussion of the whole question declined to put the call from Jefferson Avenue Church, Detroit, Mich., into the hands of Rev. Dr. Plunkett. This means that Dr. Plunkett will remain with his present charge in Covington. Dr. Plunkett now gets $2,500 salary, but if he had gone to Detroit, the church there would have paid him $4,000, and given him a parsonage to live in, and besides given him two months' vacation each year during the heated season.

MASON, ROSSER & DICKEY and Mason & Woolfolk have completed their contracts on the railroad in Bracken County, and Captain Mandy will get through with his this week, if the weather continues favorable.

THE Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad Company will run two accommodation trains between this city and Cincinnati and two between New Richmond and Cincinnati as soon as the railroad is completed.

J. E. FAIRHEAD and Lee Riggs, who were the engineers on the construction trains, with headquarters at Greenup, have been given control of the engines of the mixed trains on the Maysville and Big Sandy.—Greenup Gazette.

REGULAR meeting of the Bandana club at the court house to-night. The committees on membership are urged to make as favorable a report as possible. All Democrats who are not yet members are requested to enroll their names at once.

THE Young Men's Democratic Glee Club has been organized at Ripley with the following officers: Jack Norris, President; H. D. Byersdorfer, Vice-President; Sam. Eckman, Treasurer; Frank Beneca, Secretary; and Charles Crosby, Musical Director.

THE horse and buggy which the camp meeting train ran over near Dimmitt's Station Sunday night belonged to Mr. James Lashbrooke. The outfit had been hired to a negro that day and the horse had broken loose from a neighbor's where the fellow was visiting.

THE Louisville Commercial will very likely have a big suit for libel on its hands. It recently published a highly sensational special about a Mr. Wright, of Bourbon County, alleging very wicked and outrageous doings on his part, but it turns out there was little, if any, truth in the article.

THE season is now fully open at Escalopia Springs. It is one of the most delightful summer resorts to be found anywhere. Table seldom equaled. A large, airy ball room, good music, and dancing every night, bowling alley and billiard room. Company owns thirty-two acres of land, finely shaded. No flies or mosquitoes. Sulphur, iron and alum waters.

THE Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad has at last been formally turned over to the operative department, and trains are now being run on schedule time, over the entire line.—Courier-Journal.

The editor of the Courier-Journal's railroad department should keep better posted. The Maysville and Big Sandy has not been formally turned over to the operative department and trains are not being run over the entire line, as the track from Augusta to Cincinnati, a distance of forty miles, is yet to be laid. The road between this city and Ashland is being operated for the construction company.

THE Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company will now be permitted to push its Cumberland Valley Branch on Cumberland Gap. Track-laying on the road has been at a stand-still for months all because the company wouldn't pay Ajax Asher $4,000 for right of way through his back yard, which stands straight up and extends about one hundred yards along the bluff across the Cumberland from Pineville. Mr. Asher fought them successfully through all the courts, winning on a technicality. But the case has at last been settled by the company paying Mr. Asher $3,000. Mr. Asher is a determined mountaineer who knows how to handle a Winchester, and if any of the railroad contractors had attempted to make a "sneak" on him it would no doubt have been their last.

THE EQUITABLE LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY.—The Louisville Branch Office, of Kentucky and Tennessee, Roe & Lyon, managers, have sent forward applications amounting to $2,298,000 for the current half year, against $1,412,500 for the corresponding period of 1887, a gain of $885,500 or 63 per cent. The gain at the Home Office, in the entire business of the Equitable is about $15,000,000 indicating a new business of $175,000,000 in 1888 against $138,000,000 for last year.

The Equitable is the largest, strongest and most prosperous, great Mutual Life Insurance Company in the world. J. Dudley Smith, General Agent, in connection with Jos. F. Brodick, Local Agent, represent the Equitable in Maysville, and will be pleased to furnish you a full explanation of the "Free Tontine" policy recently devised by the Equitable.

IN MEMORIAM.

DIED—Friday evening, July 20, at the home of her parents near Washington, Mason County, Ky., SUDIE, only daughter and oldest child of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Coburn, aged twenty-one years.

Dead? Oh, no! but living a richer, fuller life than this world can afford or our vain conception dreams of. Living where life is endless, painless, sinless. Living in immortality whilst we human toilers fret our souls and weep for a sweetness gone from our lives, a jewel snatched from our casket, never thinking that the jewel is set in a crown and the sweetness is a part and parcel of that everlasting incense around the throne of God, who called her.

A father's glory, a mother's joy and pride, mild, amiable and pure as the snow drop whose very life depends upon God's pitying will, she filled her home with that complete happiness which is, alas! too often transient. She blossomed for a brief span only to fade and sink and vanish like a bright spring sunset, but which, in vanishing, leaves rich tints behind, promising a glorious resurrection.

Comfort comes with the consciousness that all human happiness is but an atom when weighed with that immeasurable bliss a pure soul like hers finds in Paradise. Even our fond selfishness dares not wish her back when our most devoted affection could not purchase her a tithe of that peace and glory God freely gave her when He took her from our midst.

He that made the rose is not content to pluck aborted buds but gathers freshest blossoms, but He hath also a saive for every parent stem from which He clips a flower and is ever quick to heal the hurt. To bloom in earth or Heaven? Father! Mother! Can there be a choice? Look up and see celestial radiance in your daughter's face, parted from you only for a little while, but for the best, for she keeps God's company and, smiling, beckons you towards the same rich society.
